

1. First, take out the left and right decorative covers inside the packaging accessories (Tips: the left and right decorative covers have black, beige, grey and blue 4 colors for optional) .3M sticker made it tighter

2. Take out the monitor , align the buckle on the left decorative cover with the left groove on the monitor , then insert the buckle on the decorative cover from left to right into the buckle slot; install the right decorative cover according to the same steps, shown as below:

3. After installation, checking whether the gaps between the edges of the decorative covers, and the gaps between the edges of the decorative covers are flat, that is, the installation finished

4. To remove the decorative cover, first find gap on the corner, jam the edge of the corner gap and push it out. (Note: when pushing out, please push out the front and back places at the same time to prevent damage to the decorative covers)

